KNN -

A model that plots preferably continuous numeric data, and then introduces a new data point and uses a certain amount (K) of neighbors, to classify this new data point.

Pseudocode -

Wrangle data

Plot data

Develop a model with an initial guess for K

Run repeatedly to hone in on K

Choose the best K value that yields the highest accuracy percentage.